SPEAKERS

Sharon Clay-Britt

DOJ—CARPOS

Sharon Clay-Britt conducts statewide information seminars with law enforcement, courts, district attorneys' offices, and victim/witness centers about the entry of information into the California Restraining and Protection Order System (CARPOS), the various types of restraining orders, and new and proposed legislation concerning restraining orders. Assists law enforcement agencies and superior courts with entry and update transactions into DVROS. Sharon has 18 and 1/2 years experience with DOJ and is qualified as both a CARPOS trainer and auditor.

Jenae Tucker, LMFT

Therapist, Treatment Coordinator

Jenae Tucker's dynamic speaking style makes this presentation on Personalities in the Workplace a fun and interactive workshop for anyone in a leadership role. Learn how to get the most out of employees, manage difficult personalities, and examine attitude vs. skill.

Craig Collins

Justice Government Liaison Officer, Dept. Motor Vehicles

Interpreting a DMV registration printout can be confusing. Craig takes the mystery out of reading and understanding a DMV printout. Learn the codes used by DMV, terms and restrictions and learn about new legislation affecting law enforcement and California drivers.

Lt. Hajir Nuriddin

Investigations Division, Bakersfield PD

Lt. Nuriddin presents an exciting workshop that explores various issues facing supervisors and line staff. Participants will learn strategies they can put into practice in their workplace. If you are interested in improving your leadership, communication, and teamwork skills, this workshop is for you!
